

Constitution of The American Legion Riders The American Legion, Department of South Carolina

Purpose

The American Legion Riders (ALR) will be members of The American Legion Department of South Carolina who are also motorcycle enthusiasts. They can be found participating in parades, partaking in motorcycling events, and supporting the communities in which they live, work, and play. Members of The American Legion Riders come from the ranks of The American Legion Department of South Carolina, American Legion Auxiliary, and the Sons of The American Legion. The American Legion Riders are now and will always be a program of each individual post throughout South Carolina and will be called chapters. The American Legion Riders were formed;

To participate in parades and other ceremonies that is in keeping with the aims and purposes of The American Legion Department of South Carolina,

To promote motorcycle safety programs and to provide a social atmosphere for American Legion members who share the same interest,

To use our association to promote and support programs of The American Legion.

The American Legion Riders is not a motorcycle club, and does not practice motorcycle club rules or regulations. The American Legion Riders is family-oriented, just as is its parent organization: The American Legion Department of South Carolina.

Preamble

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To demonstrate the principles of responsible motorcycling as set forth in The American Legion Riders' response:

“We, your American Legion Riders, ride for God and country, The American Legion family, and allied veterans everywhere, protect those that protect us, amen.”

To serve as examples of responsible American patriotism.

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America.

To serve our comrades as set forth in the preamble to the constitution of The American Legion.
