ARTICLE VI - CONVENTION COMMITTEES

Section 1. Before each annual Detachment convention the Detachment Commander shall appoint the following convention committees to serve during the life of the convention only:

A. Committee on Credentials: The Committee on Credentials shall pass upon the credentials of all delegations to the convention from local Squadrons. In case of a controversy, the action of this committee shall be final provided that an appeal may be taken to the floor by either of the contestants in such controversy.

B. Committee on Rules: The Committee on Rules shall recommend to the convention such rules as they deem advisable and necessary for the conduct of the business of the convention.

Section 2. There may also be appointed by the Detachment Commander any further or other committees for each convention as shall be deemed necessary and proper.

ARTICLE VII - AMENDMENTS

Section 1. The Bylaws may be amended at any Detachment Convention by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the total authorized representation thereat, provided that the proposed amendment shall have been submitted through the Detachment to the Detachment Squadrons, and members of the Detachment Executive Committee by mailing same to them at least sixty (60) days prior to the next Detachment Convention. Any such proposed amendment may be amended without further notice by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the total authorized representatives thereat, provided it does not increase the modification proposed by the amendment and it has received the approval of the Detachment Constitution/Bylaws Committee and, provided further, it may be amended by unanimous vote at any Detachment Convention without notice.

Section 2. That no proposed amendment shall be submitted through the Detachment Adjutant to the Squadrons and members of the Detachment Executive Committee, as provided in Section 1 of this Article, unless said proposed amendment shall have been submitted by a Detachment Squadron, Detachment Squadron Executive Committee, or the Detachment Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VIII - DISCIPLINE

Section 1:

(A) Each Squadron of The American Legion, Detachment of South Carolina shall be the judge of its own membership, subject to the restrictions of the National and Detachment Constitution and Bylaws and the oversight of the Department SAL Committee.

(B) In order that the membership in each Squadron of the Detachment of South Carolina has an opportunity to become thoroughly familiar with the purposes and ideals of The Sons of the American Legion and the objectives of his/her Squadron, each Squadron is required to meet at least once (1) every three (3) months during each SAL year.

(C) The Squadron meetings are to be stated and at fixed intervals to be provided for in the Bylaws of the Sons of the American Legion Squadron.

Section 2

(A) Members may be suspended or expelled from The Sons of the American Legion only upon proper showing of cause.

(B) Charges shall be based upon disloyalty, neglect of duty, dishonesty, and conduct unbecoming a member of The Sons of the American Legion.

(C) All charges must be made under oath and in writing by the accusers and served on the accused either by personal service or by mailing a certified copy of same to him/her by registered mail at his/her last known address at least thirty (30) days prior to the date for his/her trial.

(D) No member in good standing shall lose his/her membership until given a fair trial in such manner and form, as the Detachment Bylaws shall provide.

Section 3. The trial of a member shall be held before the executive committee of the Squadron, the Commander presiding, and he/she shall be the sole judge of the admissibility of evidence.

Section 4. Any member who has been suspended or expelled has the right to appeal to the Detachment Executive Committee, and its decision shall be final.
